

DeSoto ISD Distance Learning Plan: Week of March 30, 2020

Pre-Kindergarten (3 year olds)

Young learners need a balanced schedule that includes online learning experiences, hands-on type activities, reading opportunities (reading activities include: being read to, reading with an adult, and independent reading) and writing opportunities (writing activities include: drawing, painting, coloring, and). A daily schedule should include outdoor and indoor play time, as well as the usual family routines including meal time routines, morning and bedtime routines.

- Suggested 3-year old Daily Schedule
- Calendar of Activities March \(English\)
- Calendar of Activities March \(Spanish\)
- Calendar of Activities April \(English\)
- Calendar of Activities April \(Spanish\)
- Setting a Daily Agenda
- Journaling & Social Emotional Learning

Special Education Services: Students who receive services in the resource/inclusion setting should follow the distance learning plan according to the grade band. Please reach out to your child's teachers for additional assistance. For students who are served in centralized special education self-contained classrooms, please access daily schedules and materials by clicking on the name of the appropriate program: ECSE/STRIVESK-2, STRIVES3-5/ElementaryAppliedAcademics, SecondaryAppliedAcademics, Lifeskills.

PLEASE CONTACT YOUR CHILD'S TEACHERS OR SCHOOL LEADERSHIP TEAM DIRECTLY FOR QUESTIONS ABOUT DESOTO ISD DISTANCE LEARNING.

Please note that DeSoto ISD does not intend to replicate a full school day via Distance Learning - instead, we are focused on ensuring all students continue to progress toward mastery.