

DeSoto ISD Distance Learning Plan: Week of March 30, 2020

Special Education Services: Students who receive services in the resource/inclusion setting should follow the distance learning plan according to the grade band. Please reach out to your child's teachers for additional assistance. For students who are served in centralized special education self-contained classrooms, please access daily schedules and materials by clicking on the name of the appropriate program: ECSE/STRIVESK-2, STRIVES3-5/ElementaryAppliedAcademics, SecondaryAppliedAcademics, Lifeskills.

Grades 3 - 5*

If your child is enrolled in our dual language program in 3-5, please complete Reading/Language Arts activities in both languages.*

CHOOSE THE SET OF INSTRUCTIONAL ACTIVITIES BELOW THAT APPLIES BEST FOR YOUR CHILD.

YES, I have a device and internet access:
DISD Online Backpack

NO, I do NOT have a device and internet access.

Please complete:

- Set a daily agenda and goals as a family.
- At least 20 minutes of choice reading (books or e-readers) per day
- Record your daily reading on a Reading Log.
- 20 minutes of written journaling, responding to prompts per day
- 30 minutes Istation Reading or español per week
- 30 minutes Istation Math per week
- 1 STEMScopes Science Assignment (log-in to STEMScopes for the assignment) per week
- Master 2 skills per week in IXL (your choice!) per week

Please complete:

- Set a daily agenda and goals as a family.
- At least 20 minutes choice reading (books or e-readers) daily
- Record your daily reading on a Reading Log.
- 20 minutes of written journaling, responding to prompts per day
- Reading Language Arts/Social Studies Tech-free Assignment
- Math Tech-free Assignment
- Science Tech-free Assignment

PLEASE CONTACT YOUR CHILD'S TEACHERS OR SCHOOL LEADERSHIP TEAM DIRECTLY FOR QUESTIONS ABOUT DESOTO ISD DISTANCE LEARNING.

Please note that DeSoto ISD does not intend to replicate a full school day via Distance Learning - instead, we are focused on ensuring all students continue to progress toward mastery.